Commonweal Armies

Browne Will Proceed from Hagerstown with Coxey's Cohorts this Morning.

MARCHING THROUGH IOWA.

HAGERTOWN, Md., April 22.—After a three days' stop in this place the Coxey cohorts are preparing to march on Frederick. There were rumors to night that Browne would remain encamped here until the return of Coxey from New York, but the start will be made to-morrow at 9 o'clock. Browne to night, in speaking of the proposed camp in the arsenal grounds, said that he had concluded that the grounds around the foot of Washington monument would be more convenient and appropriate and announced that he would telegraph Col. Redstone to make a request for the grounds on the secretary of war. Mayor Fleming of Frederick is preparing a frosty reception for the army. He has announced that no public meeting will be allowed unless in a hall and that there shall be no parade on the street. Browne says that he would like to see the mayor stop a procession of American citizens with the American flag at its head. The Sunday services at the camp were attended by a crowd of 150 persons. Fifty dollars in all was taken in at the gate. Browne doffed his boots and sombrero in honor of his appearance and put on a suit of store clothes of clerical black. His sermon was on his own ideas of theosophy. In the afternoon another meeting was held, at which Browne lectured on finance. The general order for the night stated that the start would be at 10 a. m. and the camp is named Daniel Boone.

KELLY ON THE MARCH.

NEOLA, Ia., April 22.—Kelly and his industrial army ended their first day's march from Council Bluffs here at 6 o'clock this evening and immediately went into camp in a grove just east of town. The entry into this city was a triumphal march. Almost every man, woman and child of the 1100 inhabitants went out to greet the army. Flags were borne and cheers were lusty as the 1800 men tramped down Main street. The stores and vacant buildings of this place were thrown wide open and the weary men were offered all available shelter. The start from camp Weston was made at 8 o'clock. Hundreds of people had gone out from Council Bluffs and Omaha to see the beginning of the long overland march, and a dozen wagons heavily loaded with provisions awaited the moving of the column. As soon as breakfast was over and the the blankets strapped the companies fell into line, and in step to the energetic thumping of a bass drummer, tramped down the hill upon which was situated the camp, and the march to Washington was begun. Today was a perfect one and rapid time was made along the smooth, well beaten roads. From every farm house flags were flying and at every cross-road lines of gaily decorated wagons and carriages hailed the coming of the army. The little town of Underwood was reached and a sumptuous repast was served by the villagers. When the meal was over and the impromptu speeches done, the march was resumed amid the cheering of the crowd. On every side the deepest smypathy for Kelly and his men was expressed and farmers and townsmen were eager to supply the wants of the commonwealers. Neola is with Kelly to a man and the condemnation of the railroads in refusing transportation is as violent here as at Council Bluffs and Omaha.

As an ironical expression of the feeling regarding the calling out of the Iowa militia, the citizens here formed a company of little girls and boys to greet the advent of the army. The badges and banners of the infantile brigade bore the inscription, "Neola Militia." During the day there was no scene of disturbance or disorder and the plan of seizing a train has been abandoned. The railroads entering Council Bluffs will not, however, run trains in this vicinity until the army is well off their roads.

To-morrow the commonwealers will move to Avoca, ten miles away, and if promises made to day are fulfilled 150 wagons will be provided for transportation. Gen. Kelley said to-night that whether the men ride or walk they will move to Des Moines. There the army expects to secure a train for Chicago, and at Chicago they believe they will be provided with transportation to the east.

PART OF FRYE'S ARMY.

WILMINGTON, O., April 22.—Col. Galvin of Frye's army, with 200 commonwealers, is stranded here, the railroad company refusing to carry them further. The regiment is in camp at the fair grounds.

They Talked Lynching.

GAINESVILLE, Tex., April 22.—John Jacksen Crews, who is charged with a quadruple murder, and John Baldwin, who is charged with outrage, arrived here at a late hour last night in custody of Sheriff Ware and several deputies. A crowd of 200 people assembled at the Santa Fe depot, anxious to see the prisoners, but they were quickly placed in a carriage and were soon at the county jail. People gathered around the jail soon after and talked of lynching, but Sheriff Ware made a strong speech which caused the crowd to disperse. Good order has thus far prevailed and no trouble is now expected.

Fatal Blow.

PLANO, Collin Co., Tex., April 22.—Issac Johnson, colored, who was struck on the head last Sunday with a club, died to-day from fracture of the skull. Ed and George Williams, colored, who were involved in the difficulty with Johnson, were rearrested this morning. A day or two after the difficulty they paid fines simple assault,

DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Finding of the South Carolina Supreme Court on the Tillman Law.

COLUMBIA, S. C. April 19.—The Tillman state dispensary liquor law has been declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of South Carolina, two justices concurring and one Tillmanite member of the supreme bench dissenting from the opinion.

OPINION AT WASHINGTON.

WASINGTON, April 19.—The South Carolina delegation to congress was thrown into consternation on the receipt of telegrams stating that the supreme court of the state had declared the dispensary liquor law unconstitutional. The dispensary law has been such a supreme issue in South Carolina accentuating the party lines, that the congressmen from that state regard the decision as profoundly important.

Mr. McLaurin, who is a former attorney general, is familiar with the case and has all the briefs on which the decision was based, said: "The essential point in the case was whether the state hed the right to engage in the whiskey business as a means of profit and to raise state revenue. No one doubted the power to regulate the business for purposes, but the legal point was made that the state could no more go into the whiskey business for profit than it could go into the shoe, hat or any other business enterprise. It is probable that the decision hinged on this main point. The decision is not a personal reverse for Gov. Tillman. He has simply been executing the law as he found it. He did not make the law, but the legislature enacted it, and it was his duty to execute it."

Representative Isler, one of the conservative or anti-Tillman party of the state, said that the decision would undoubtedly bring peace to a much disturbed state. The law had been a source of political division and individual contention. This had brought but disorder and riot within the state and much criticism of South Carolina from the country at large.

Representative Talbert, of the reform anti-Tillman party said: "I think the decision will have the effect to strengthen the reform party. On its face it appears to be a reverse, and will will undoubtedly appear that the decision is biased and it excite such feeling in the state that the reform element will eventually be benefited."

Major Penn is Here.

Major Penn, the evangelist, opened up his revival meeting with some preliminary remarks yesterday at the morning service of the Central Baptist church. He agreeably surprised the congregation by announcing that he would not accept any remuneration whatever for his services because the Lord had made him able to live without it and because he wanted to have the gospel preached unto the poor.

The congregation at the morning services was fair sized in view of the fact that, as a rule, church-goers attend their own churches at the morning services and that the non-church going people have not yet become interested in this revival. Major Penn will preach every morning and night in the Central Baptist church until the Southern Baptist convention meets. Seats are free.—Dallas News.

A Call for a County Convention.

ALLEN, Tex., March 8. 1894.

By authority, in me vested as the chairman of the executive committee of the peoples party of Collin county, I hereby call a delegate convention of said party to meet in McKinney on Saturday, May 5, '94, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the state and congressional conventions and to nominate a county ticket.

According to the basis of representation adopted at the January meeting the several precincts will be entitled to representation as follows:

No. 1	25
" 2	22
" 5	10
" 8	8
Total	92

In addition to this each school district organization will be entitled to elect one delegate to the county convention.

Each precinct chairman is instructed to call a precinct convention at some convenient place in his precinct for the purpose of electing the above number of delegates and is requested to call such convention not later than Saturday, April 28, 1894.

Each school district chairman is requested to call a meeting of the populists in his district at such time as may suit his convenience, which meeting shall elect one delegate to the county convention, who, together with the delegates elected as before named shall constitute said convention. Let all precinct and district chairmen act with promptness in this matter that we may have a full representation. J. W. GRAY, Chairman,
E. C. FORBES, Secretary.

WOMEN IN SOCIETY
—often need the strengthening support of a general tonic and nervine.
Are you weak, nervous, or ailing? Then Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription brings you special help. For delicate women, for all the derangements, disorders, and diseases of the sex, it imparts vigor and relieves sleeplessness, backache and "bearing-down sensations." The success of "Favorite Prescription" in curing all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses of women, warrant its makers in guaranteeing it. Your money is returned if it no benefit is received.

Miss LEONORA M. HIGGINSON, of Springfield, S. Dakota, writes: "I cannot say enough for your Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. After years I suffered from leucorrhœa, irregularity and similar debility, but now I feel as well as ever did in my life. Thanks to you for your 'Favorite Prescription.'"

PIERCE'S CURE.

Put the Blame Where it Belongs.

The forced adoption of the quorum counting rule by the democrats in congress was humiliating to such of them as denounced the rule when the republican majority of the Fifty-first congress promulgated it. It was humiliating, but it was necessary for the accomplishment of legislation.

Mr. Catchings, the democrat who led the fight for the adoption of the new rule, attacked the republican minority for compelling such action.

"If the proposed proceedings were revolutionary," he declared, "it had been forced by the representatives of a great party who insisted upon a policy of obstruction on the most trivial and unimportant legislation. He resented the idea that such obstruction could be considered statesmanlike. Yet, having become the settled policy of the opposition, heroic measures were necessary in order that the house might transact business."

The attempt to load the responsibility for this revolutionary legislation" upon the republican party is childish. The republican party in the house of representatives is in minority, and is not responsible for legislation, because it cannot shape legislation. The democratic do-nothings and absentees are responsible for the quorum counting rule. With enough members to get a quorum, and thirty to spare, the democrats could not bring enough of their members together to do business. They were off attending to their private affairs. Their absence put it in the power of the republican minority to check such legislation as was opposed to their liking, and they took advantage of the situation created by democratic failure to attend to duty. What they did they could not have done if the men whom democrats elected to congress had honestly and faithfully done their duty and stood at their posts. These are the men for Mr. Catchings to denounce—the unfaithful and recreant democrats, not the republicans, who were true to their party policies.

The episode is one that is as exasperating to the democratic voters of the country as it is disgraceful to their party history, and they are resolute in the intention that no democrat whose falseness to duty made a departure from democratic principles necessary shall be trusted again for a second betrayal. A vigorous weeding out will not hurt the party.—Fort Worth Gazette.

Quite Independent of the Men.

A certain girl evidently has a rather poor opinion of the stronger sex. Upon being asked why she did not marry, she replied: "I have considerable money of my own. I have a parrot that swears, a monkey that chews, a chimney that smokes, so you see I am not in need of a husband very badly."

Some of the papers in Texas would refuse to criticise any of their political favorites even if these favorites should turn the constitution and spill all the liberties of the people into a stormy sea of disorder and revolution. Their prejudices tumble out of their mouths like bumblebees from a sinkhole.—Dallas News.

Is Different from Others.
It is intended to aid the planter in selecting the Seeds best adapted for his needs and conditions and in getting from them the best possible results. It is not, therefore, highly colored in either sense; and we have taken great care that nothing worthless be put in, or nothing worthy be left out. We invite a trial of our Seeds. We know them because we grow them. Every planter of Vegetables or Flowers ought to know about our three warrants; our cash discounts; and our gift of agricultural papers to purchasers of our Seeds. All of these are explained in the Catalogue, a copy of which can be yours for the asking.

THE DEMOCRAT.

EDITED AND PUBLISHED
By F. C. Thompson.

THURSDAY. APR. 26, 1894

They soon will clash, these old-time foes,
Called out by weather fickle—
The man whose head is slightly bald,
The fly with feet that tickle.
—Washington Star.

TALK sense.

DON'T get angry.

HARMONY needs some more "Trinity water."

POPULISTS are scarce in Wall street and Hades.

DRINK freely at the fountain of political reform.

WHEN you fire at the devil be sure not to cripple yourself.

THE state convention of the populists will be held at Waco on June 20th, next.

DON'T question your neighbor's opinion. Be sure that you are in earnest yourself.

DEMOCRATS are abusing Senator Reagan. This is a good sign that he is getting right.

MANY congressmen, on their return home, will find a quorum lacking among their former friends.

THE congressional convention of the populists of this district will be held at Whitesboro on June 18th.

THE railroads refuse to give reduced rates to the Coxeyites but are always ready to give the Wall street gang a liberal reduction to Washington.

We are under obligation to the Dallas News for the major part of the report regarding the death of Governor Throckmorton and the illustrations.

MAYOR BARRY of Dallas advocates that the city should own the electric light business in that city. Wonder if this democratic mayor is getting undemocratic?

THE free silver democrat and populist can harmonize on the latter's platform without the sacrifice of principles and without the aid of his Satanic Majesty.

SENATOR MORGAN of Alabama has created a large sized sensation in the democratic party by charging that Cleveland was nominated by fraud—that he bought the nomination.

SENATOR MILLS made a speech on the pending tariff bill last Wednesday. He said that the bill did not suit him however, he would vote for the same. It will be developed later that the bill does not suit the people.

THE wavering gentleman of the opposition should come into the populist camp at once and enjoy its pure atmosphere. We welcome you and will appreciate your help in winning the victory against political corruption. Come.

THE enterprise of the Dallas News in reporting the death and burial of our lamented Throckmorton, was highly appreciated by our people. The demand for the Sunday's and Monday's issues of that splendid journal exausted the supply sent here.

A GREAT many of our democratic exchanges are getting rather mugwumpish. In fact we are getting jealous of them for fear they will steal all of our thunder. We trust, however, that our subscribers and patrons generally, will stay with us because we were first on the populist deck.

THE Cloud Chief (Okla.) Herald-Sentinel comes to us again this week with the name of our esteemed friend, F. T. Cook, flying at the mast head, which insures continued success to that valuable paper. The copy just received is printed on brown wrapping paper with the following explanation:

"In taking charge of the Herald-Sentinel again, we do so under difficulties. We find no paper at all in the office, and but very little in town, but its a cold day when we don't get out an issue of some kind. But don't expect too much from us the first time, for remember we are seventy-five miles from a railroad, a mile from the river, about sixty million miles from heaven, only a short distance from h—l and a democratic administration, and with these points in view we are certainly excusable."

A NATION MOURNS.

Throckmorton is gone.

Responsive sorrow comes from every land.

The temple of liberty and freedom loses a strong support ing column.

A mind of rare genius, a heart pulsating for humanity his presence bore an air of universal inspiration.

Brave, noble, generous, kind a born leader of men he was polished and finished after the highest model.

Honored and trusted by millions of his kind he proved himself worthy of all, and more.

In war, his council was a bulwark of safety.

In peace, his advice was sought by all.

When will we see his like again?

On the morning of April 21, 1836 at 8:30 o'clock Gen. Sam Houston was on the field of San Jacinto, planning the brave charge which a few minutes later, carved out of chaos our proud TEXAS! The brightest star in the American galaxy.

Exactly 58 years from that magic hour fate called on Texas for the sacrifice of her most honored son, and now, the 21st of each recurring April will have an additional halo of sacredness about it.

This is the day Texas found her brightest shield and lost her most loyal son.

The very mention of his name to the gray headed pioneers of Texas revives the hallowed memories of the stirring events of the past. Many of his companions have gone before—have entered the evening shadows of life expressing the last sad farewell, "Good night." A few more linger among us. Heaven bless the gray hairs, the furrowed cheeks of care—the tottering forms. May they reunite with the departed heroes upon some brighter shore where there will be no weary struggles for liberty, no consecration of lives in defense of homes and loved ones.

REV. ROBBIN ANDREWS of Belton, Texas, who has a state wide reputation as a Baptist divine, a scholar, teacher and gentleman, has announced his intention to roll up his sleeves and defend populist principles in the coming campaign. He has served as president of the Baylor University and held other positions in various colleges in the state. He is a native born Texan and will do good service for the cause.

GOVERNOR HOGG was fined $25 recently for unlawfully killing game in an East Texas county. We think this an outrage—we think that he should have been cleared since he is so totally ignorant of the laws of the country.

Broken Down by Kidney Trouble and Gravel

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Dear Sirs: I wish to make a statement in regard to my case. In January, 1890, I was taken down with pains in my back and kidney trouble, and at the same time became afflicted with gravel. For five months I was not out of my house, and for months was unable to stand alone. I was attended by three of the best physicians of North Arkansas, but they gave only temporary relief. The following two years and a half nearly all the sleep I got was in a chair, as lying in bed would cause me

Much Pain and Misery.

I had tried many different medicines besides the doctors' treatment, but I decided to give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. After using three bottles I got so that I am now able to lie in bed and sleep most of the night. It has benefited me greatly, and I am stouter than I have been for the past three years. I have worked very hard all my life, and had become owing to my occupation, that of the village blacksmith. Some twelve years ago I had to give up my trade owing to my ill health, and now in my sixty-ninth year I feel much better, and it is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I can truthfully say to the afflicted Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine." J. B. HASTINGS, Postmaster, Wolf Bayou, Arkansas.

JAMES W. THROCKMORTON.

Throckmorton Dead.

He Passes Quietly Away.

INCIDENTS OF EARLY LIFE.

A Large Attended Funeral.—Other Notes.

Ex-Governor J. W. Throckmorton died at his home in McKinney, Saturday, April 21, at 8:30 a. m. Grouped around the bed in the death chamber were the wife of his boyhood and the comfort and solace of all his life, his boys Ed, B. E. and J. W. Throckmorton Jr., his daughters, Mrs. Shirley (Annie), and Misses Lulie and Florence, Messrs. I. D. Newsome, Bob Dowell, Lon Blizzard, Capt. W. L. Boyd and Dr. Joe Largent. Peacefully and quietly the spirit passed away. He died as he lived, a brave man.

The news of Throckmorton's death spread rapidly through out the community, and wired messages flashed all over Texas and the republic which caused universal regret.

Directly after the announcement groups of aged citizens could be found in all the public places of McKinney discussing the stirring events in which their lamented friend had played such a prominent part.

In speaking of the perils of the drouthy border of Texas during the Mexican war, and to show the sympathetic nature of Throckmorton G. A. Wilson remarked:

"I had gone down there ahead of our boys and enlisted. I knew what it was. So I always carried a can of water in my wagon. It was a great big, ten gallon can. Well, sir, one day I was driving across the sandy wastes southeast of San Antonio, when I came across a lot of sick men who had been left behind. They were nearly dying of thirst. I stopped my team and told them to come up and get some water. As soon as I yelled I saw Jim Throckmorton coming toward me. He wanted to know what I was doing there, and I told him that just then I was watering some sick soldiers. Throckmorton carried the water to the men, never touching a drop for himself until after they had all got enough. Those men told me that when they had been left behind to die, he being the only man in the company who knew anything about medicine, had volunteered to stay with them and nurse them, and had done it. They told me further that he had given the last drop of water out of his can to the sick, besides all of his provisions, and had gone for days without food or water. That was Jim Throckmorton when he was 21 years of age, and that was the kind of a man he was all his life, for I have known him for nearly fifty years."

To illustrate his love of country and his bravery it is said that upon one occasion when the Indians had made a murderous raid on the frontier near Gainesville, Throckmorton mounted a box near the present site of the Foote House and in an eloquent speech called for volunteers to march against the red tribe. His audience was slow to enlist. He became vexed, denounced their cowardice and, mounting his horse, declared that he would go alone if necessary. This bold move won favor among those who had just hesitatated, consequently they joined him and fought the Indians back from the pioneer homes.

HON J. W. THROCKMORTON was born at Sparta, Tennessee, on the first day of February, 1825. From there he moved to Illinois, thence to Arkansas where he remained until the year 1841, when his father and family removed to Texas and settled in Collin county. At that time this section of the state was subject to incursions of roving bands of hostile Indians, with whom young Throckmorton and his early companions had many closely contested engagements, and in which he gained considerable distinction as a leader.

In his early life he studied and practiced medicine with his uncle. Later, he entered into the practice of the law, and has been one of the most successful attorneys Texas has ever had. In 1851 he was elected to represent his county in the legislature, and was continuously in that body as representative and senator until 1861, when he was elected to the secession convention which convened at Austin in that year. It was in that body, when he was hissed for voting against secession, that he used the expression, "When the rabble hiss patriots tremble." After Texas seceded he joined the confederate service and served as captain and major until November, 1863, when he was again returned to the senate. In 1864 he was appointed brigadier general of state troops by the governor. In May, 1864, he concluded a treaty with all the Indian tribes on the border of Texas, under the authority of his state and the Confedate government. After the surrender he was elected as a delegate to the constitutional convention, under President Johnson's proclamation; of which body he was chosen presiding officer. In 1866 he was elected governor of Texas and was inaugurated August 8 of that year, from which position he was removed by order of General Sheridan, August 9, 1867. He was elected to the forty fourth congress, and re-elected to the forty fifth congress, in which position he rendered valuable service for his beloved state of Texas.

Since his retirement from public life, Gov. Throckmorton has resumed the practice of the law at his home city, McKinney, and the business of the firm is as large as the largest in the state.

There are many interesting events in the life of this noble son of Texas that would be pleasant to relate to our readers; but we must omit them for want of space. His devotion to the interesests of the people of Texas will long be remembered and his name revered by future generations, for whom, by his wise acts prepared the means of an education.

Gov. Throckmorton was married but once and his wife survives him. She was Miss Ann Ratten and they were married in 1848. Six children are living, three boys and three girls. Two of the boys, Ed and B. E., the latter a physician, are married. B. E. and James W. live here, Ed lives near Weatherford. His daughters Misses Lulu and Florence, and Mrs. Shirley all live here. There were nine children in all, three of whom, Hugh, Jennie and Tollie are dead. Mrs. Throckmorton was born in Illinois, is 64 years of age, five years her husband's junior.

The last sad rites over the remains of Hon J. W. Throckmorton was completed late Sunday evening, beginning at 5 o'clock. Religious services were held at that hour at the home of the deceased, Rev. Morris of the Methodist church, Rev. Wofford of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, and Rev. Russell of the old School Presbyterian church officiating. At 5:30 the largest funeral cortege ever seen in McKinney left the Throckmorton residence for the cemetery, one and a half miles south from the courthouse square. Large delegations from surrounding towns attended. The streets along the route were lined with the citizens of McKinney and the surrounding country. Hundreds walked to the cemetery, owing to their inability to procure transportation.

The Masonic fraternity headed by District Grand Master, Sam R. Hamilton, of Farmersville, conducted the services at the grave, which were impressive.

The funeral cortege was as follows: Members of the J. W. Throckmorton fire department of McKinney on foot, members of the Masonic order on foot, hearse, followed closely by carriages containing members of the family, carriages and other vehicles containing citizens of all rank, including officers of the Choctaw coal and railway company as follows: J. D. Bradford, general manager; J. F. Holden, auditor; J. W. McCloud, attorney; Geo. E. Starr, cashier, all of South McAlester, I. T., also Andrew Dow, general agent of the company, of Houston, and Capt. Lon Blizzard of South McAlester, who was assistant for Gov. Throckmorton.

Judge P. B. Muse and Judge J. A. L. Wolfe of Sherman, District Judge Dilliard and K. R. Craig of Dallas were in the procession.

Just as the king of day was lowering in the western horizon with his golden rays falling gently upon the prairies and casting his mellow light through the labyrinth of the north Texas forests so familiar to the deceased, the remains of the loved relative, citizen, statesman and patriot was consigned by devoted hands and sorrowing hearts to their last repose in the soil.

There rested above the stilled form a wilderness of floral offerings of grateful friends sending forth their fragrance upon the Sabbath evening breeze.

A meeting of the bar was held Saturday night. Hon. J. H. Jenkins, one of the earliest settlers of Collin county, and who ranks among the oldest members of the bar of this city, was chairman, and Hon. J. R. Gough, present state representative, was secretary. A committee composed of Hons. R. C. White, J. L. Doggett, W. F. Beverly, H. C. Mack, W. B. Merritt, J. H. Jenkins and R. DeArmond was selected to draft resolutions to be presented at a meeting which was held at 3:30 p. m. Sunday. The committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

We, your committee appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of the bar on the death of the Hon. J. W. Throckmorton, report: That while we feel our utter inability in any of the set forms usually employed on such occasions to express the admiration, esteem and love we feel for our dead brother, but as a feeble and imperfect expression respectfully submit the following resolutions:

THROCKMORTON'S HOME

Resolved, That as a lawyer J. W. Throckmorton represented in his life the highest standard of earnest, honest and sincere fidelity to his clients' interest; unselfish and faithful regard for the public good, and a noble, courteous and magnanimous treatment of his professional brethren and the courts. To them all he was a friend and to the young lawyer a sympathetic counselor and helper in time of need.

Resolved, That in the character and life of Gov. Throckmorton, as exemplified in all the varied relations, we recognize the highest and best type of manhood, absolute honesty, unselfish patriotism, unflinching courage, devotion to friendship and a broad and far reaching charity, are but a few of the estimable qualities in which he excelled most men. As a citizen his great heart was full of love for his state and the republic. The common good was his highest and dearest aim and the welfare of his fellow citizens his greatest concern. He was a neighbor in the true sense that he sympathized with distress, relieved want and rejoiced in the happiness and success of the good and worthy.

Resolved that in the death of J. W. Throckmorton his devoted wife loses a brave, strong and loving protector and companion, a loss which is irreparable, and his children a wise, provident, loving and exemplary father, and this loss to his family we fully appreciate and to the widow and children we extend our condolence and heartfelt sympathy.

Resolved, As Jefferson and Adams died on the anniversary of that liberty on the American continent, to the achievements of which they had been most conspicuously the agents among their compatriots, it was a fitting close to the life of our dead that it should occur on the anniversary of that day which emancipated Texas from Mexican dominion and set another glorious star of liberty in the constellation of the western hemisphere. As the prowess of Houston and his handful of devoted followers or the illustrious field of San Jacinto received this rich heritage to prosperity, so our lamented and not less noble and patriotic Throckmorton devoted his life long labors to securing, promoting and advancing the blessings of that freedom.

Resolved, That the family be furnished with a manuscript copy of these resolutions and that the press be furnished with copies."

A most affecting incident occurred when Dr. G. A. Foote, a life long friend of the governor, read the following paper:

As I understand it, we have met for the purpose of passing some resolutions of respect and sympathy on the demise of our friend and neighbor, ex Gov. J. W. Throckmorton. For the last forty seven or eight years it has been my good fortune to be able to call him my best and truest friend. In 1846 you may say, when we were boys we became acquainted in Collin county, Texas. Since that time there has been a true and lasting friendship between us, which only his death has been able to break. I think I knew him as well, possibly, as any living man. We have known each other under any and all circumstances. As friends and neighbors on the Indian frontier and in the tented field and under any and all circumstances I have always found him the same kind, true and obliging friend. I have been with him in places that tried the souls of men. Whether on the frontier or in the tented field he was brave almost to a fault. Now that he has gone from us to return no more forever, it is with a sad heart that I am here to day to pay my tribute of respect to his memory. Friend, neighbor and statesman, gone forever, his memory will always be sacred to me. Not only by me, but by friends throughout this broad land will his loss be mourned. To know him as I have was to love him. His heart was as kind and sympathetic as a woman's. His humanity was for all mankind. His friends were never forgotten. The needy and distressed always received help at his hands. Hundreds now living are able to attest to this statement. In a single word he was a true and noble man. In his simplicity he was one of nature's noblemen. He was true to his country, true to his friends and honest in all his dealings with all men. But he is now gone from among us and all we can do is to revere his memory and emulate his good examples. May the great God of the universe shield and protect those of his immediate household whom he has left behind to mourn his loss."

As Dr. Foote read this paper his voice trembled and tears rushed down the furrowed cheek of the deceased's aged friend. The audience in responsive sympathy wept with him. At the conclusion a motion was made and carried to append the paper read by Dr. Foote to the resolutions as reported by the committee.

Eulogies were delivered by J. L. Doggett, J. M. Pearson, J. A. Evans and R. C. White; also by J. M. Graves of Melissa, Judge Z. E. Coombes of Dallas, a bosom friend of the governor, delivered a most impressive address. Judge T. J. Brown of the supreme court and a former law partner of Governor Throckmorton, delivered a feeling address, after which the meeting adjourned.

COUNCIL RESOLUTIONS.

To the Hon. Mayor and City Council of the City of McKinney:

We, your committee appointed to draft suitable resolutions of respect on the decease of Hon. James W. Throckmorton, respectfully submit the following:

Resolved 1st. That in the death of James W. Throckmorton, McKinney has lost her most distinguished citizen, one who had always represented her interests, both in state and national affairs, not only with eminent ability, but with unswerving and steadfast honesty and efficiency.

2nd. That as a citizen, a neighbor and as a legislator, in the private walks of life, or in the public service, he filled the very highest niche of manhood.

3rd. That we, in common with the citizens of the county and state, mourn his death, and the loss to us all of his brilliant example, and wise counsel and advice in government affairs.

4th. That we tender to the family of the deceased, our profoundest sympathy and feeling of respect, in the hour of their great bereavement.

5th. That a memorial page be set apart in the city records, and that these resolutions be recorded thereon, and that a copy of same be presented to the family of the deceased, and that the papers of the city and The Dallas News be requested to publish same.

6th. That all officers of the city government attend the funeral services.

J. M. PEARSON,
W. T. BROOKE,
J. R. PARKER,
J. K. P. SHRADER,
Committee.

Col. R DeArmond, on behalf of the committee presented the resolutions of the bar to the district court now in session, which were received in a most feeling manner by District Judge Dilliard. The resolutions were spread on the court records.

ALLIANCE DEPARTMENT.

[MRS. M. E. FORBES, EDITOR.]

Address all communications to Alliance department, THE DEMOCRAT, McKinney, or Mrs. M. E. Forbes, Allen, Texas.

COLLIN COUNTY ALLIANCE.

The Collin County alliance met with Cedar alliance at Bethlehem church, eight miles north of Farmersville, on the 18th inst.

Eighteen sub-alliances were represented by about forty delegates and a large number of visitors.

The alliance was called to order at 9 o'clock a. m. by President M. N. Stroup. The committee on credentials consisted of E. C. Forbes, W. H. Sanders and R. T. Quisenberry.

At ten o'clok the committee reported a quorum present and the alliance was opened in due form. The county lecturer reported the reorganization of three defunct alliances, which were admitted to the body. Roll call of showed all present except Vice president T. C. Martin, Chaplain J. C. Wells and Doorkeeper B. F. Ivy. Bro. L. M. Bradshaw was appointed vice president pro tem, Bro. Tom L. Holt chaplain pro tem and Bro McTee doorkeeper pro tem.

The forenoon was taken up in routine work and at 12 m. the alliance adjourned to the grounds adjoining the building and did justice to a sumptuous dinner furnished by the good sisters of Cedar alliance.

After dinner business was resumed and matters of vital importance to the order was discussed and disposed of in an earnest but friendly manner until the sun reached the western horizon, when we again adjourned to the place of banquet and further lessend the store of the good sisters.

At night speeches were made by Bros. E. F. England and J. Mart Rollins (of Hunt Co.), to a crowded house.

The alliance resumed business the following morning and completed its labors at 11 a. m. and adjourned to meet with Altoga alliance the third Wednesday in July.

NOTES.

A large number of delegates and citizens of the community gathered at the church on the evening before the meeting and listened to stirring speeches by Bros. M. W. Chapman, J. T. Branch and J. Mart Rollins.

Bro. E. F. England was highly complimented on his speech on the 18th.

Bro. J. S. Stinson, of Stinson alliance, exhibited the true quality of alliance grit. He left McKinney, where he had been confined on jury duty a week, and rode home 14 miles after night, snatched a few hours sleep, went to Wylie and caught the north bound Santa Fe train and arrived at the County alliance in time for the last days session.

A resolution indorsing our able and popular county secretary, Sister Leola Spivey, for secretary of the State alliance, was unanimously passed.

Many compliments were heard on the generous hospitality of Cedar community.

Many young faces were observed among the delegates, showing increased interest taken by our young men and women in the reform movement.

Bethany Items.

BETHANY, Tex., Apr. 22, '94.
Editor Democrat:

Weather is fine here now, everything is looking beautiful, the roses are beginning to send forth their delightful odor, and all nature seems to smile upon us.

Most every one is done planting cotton and corn, wheat and oats look nice.

W. S. Mathews has been in the neighborhood for the last week.

Prof. C. F. Trotter left last Sunday for Greenville, Tex., where he will teach a few days for Miss Pearl Boon.

Mrs. Lige Mack was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Money, last Friday.

Our Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday, with Uncle Robert Carpenter as superintendent and Miss Belle Christy secretary, Miss Pearl Carpenter treasurer. We hope the people in the community will take more interest in it than they have been doing.

We had the pleasure of passing through Calamity City not long ago and we can say from careful observation, that the correspondent from there has not over-boomed the city, as we did not know the place when we got there. We happened to see the correspondent and were informed that it was Calamity City.

There seems to be some who doubts the report from Bethany in regard to the number of Hogg democrats who have been converted to the populist belief. After counting them over and over, we find that we did make a little mistake, instead of being twelve there are fifteen of them. We are always willing to correct any mistake we make.

The Human Electrical Forces!

How They Control the Organs of the Body.

The electrical force of the human body, as the nerve fluid may be termed, is an especially attractive department of science, as it exerts so marked an influence on the health of the organs of the body. Nerve force is produced by the brain and conveyed by means of the nerves to the various organs of the body, thus supplying the latter with the vitality necessary to insure their health. The pneumogastric nerve, as shown here, may be said to be the most important of the entire nerve system, as it supplies the heart, lungs, stomach, bowels, etc., with the nerve force necessary to keep them active and healthy. As will be seen by the cut the long nerve descending from the base of the brain and terminating in the bowels is the pneumogastric, while the numerous little branches supply the heart, lungs and stomach with necessary vitality. When the brain becomes in any way disordered by irritability or exhaustion, the nerve force which it supplies is lessened, and the organs receiving the diminished supply are consequently weakened.

Physicians generally fail to recognize the importance of this fact, but treat the organ itself instead of the cause of the trouble. The noted specialist, Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. B., has given the greater part of his life to the study of this subject, and the principal discoveries concerning it are due to his efforts.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the unrivaled brain and nerve food, is prepared on the principle that all nervous and many other difficulties originate from disorders of the nerve centers. Its wonderful success in curing these disorders is testified to by thousands in every part of the land.

Restorative Nervine cures sleeplessness, nervous prostration, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs. It is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid.

Sold by all druggists.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. T. H. Emerson is very sick.

The father of Dr. Gibson has been very sick recently.

Mrs. Morton, mother of Sam Morton died in this city last Sunday.

Sam Burk and T. D. Emerson enjoyed a fishing excursion last Tuesday.

J. T. Branch and E. F. England will speak at Dublin on April 28, at 1 p. m. All are invited.

Let delegates who come to the populist convention on May 5 next be men of reason not bosses.

Populists should not go into the "yaller dog" business. They should nominate and support only good men.

John Webb, the cotton buyer, died last Monday. The remains were shipped to Sherman for interment.

The boy preacher, Rev. Burton, delivered several interesting sermons at the Christian church during the last week.

If populists wish to succeed in the future in Collin county they must place men on their ticket of clean characters and ability to serve the people.

Real merit is characteristic of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and is manifested every day in the remarkable cures the medicine accomplishes.

The jury in the case of Wal lis Stiff, charged with the killing of Geo Williams colored, returned a verdict of guilty and assessed the punishment at five years in the state prison.

A large populist club was organized at New Hope schoolhouse last Saturday night. David Bomar president, R. A. Bailey secretary. The club will meet again on Saturday night April 28th.

Tommy Jones, a young Welshman, was found on North Travis street Monday night beaten and bruised about the head. He says Jim Sneed, his room mate, did it at the boarding house of B. F. Kizer.—Sherman Courier.

We reproduce the above in order to explain that the victim is not our own Tommy Jones who sells groceries just west of Herndon's. Call and see him.

Mr. N. E. Calhoun called on us last Monday. He was on his way home from Jones county where he had been looking after some interests he has there. He says that county is nearly solid for the populist cause and that the populist doctrine is spreading fast all over that portion of the state.

There is a great dissatisfaction regarding the acoustics of the district court room. People sitting middle way or in the extreme back part of the room cannot hear the proceedings, not even the speaking. We believe this could be remedied at a reasonable cost and it certainly would be of great advantage to the public.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E H. Johnson, of C. J. Knutson & Co., Kensington, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by R. E. Bristol.

Mr. Sam Taylor, living on Armp Hill's place 5 miles north-west of here, made an unsuccessful attempt to commit suicide last Thursday by taking strychnine. It was only by prompt and heroic action that the physician sayed his life.

Miss Pearl Boone, of Allen, left this week for Birmingham Ala., to represent Texas at the Confederate reunion at that place.

One little incident, showing the liberality of Governor Throckmorton the humble writer will never forget. The Governor was the possesor of a large library. One day he stopped us on the streets of McKinney and said: "Son when you want any books just go into my library room and help yourself." We were comparatively a stranger to him at that time, which impressed us all the more.

The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction. It is good when you first catch cold. It is good when your cough is seated and your lungs are sore. It is good in any kind of a cough. We have sold twenty-five dozen of it and every bottle has given satisfaction. Stedman & Friedman, druggists, Minnesota Lake, Minn. 50 cent bottles for sale by R. E. Bristol.

E. F. England, according to reports, made a rousing speech at Cedar, in the East part of the county on the 18th inst. He dealt heavy blows against the records of the old parties and ably defended the cause of the populists. Mr. England is a farmer who has studied the reform question in all its phases and has a forcible way of expressing himself. His friends are many, all over the county, who are urging him to accept the candidacy for representative on the populist ticket. If nominated, the populist banner will be in safe and honorable hands.

Beware of Ointment for Catarrh that Contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Price 75c. per bottle.

Club Organized.

A populist club wss organized at Prairie View school house, 4 miles west of Plano, with ten members on last Saturday night. Tobe Collinsworth was elected chairman, and S. S. Hart secretary. F. M. Collinsworth was elected delegate to the county convention. E. C. Forbes, of Bethany, was introduced and addressed the meeting in a speech of one and a half hours, on the principles of the peoples party. Many who were present but did not sign the club list declared their intention of voting the populist ticket. This community has always been one of the strongholds of democracy.

MARRIAGE BELLS.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by county clerk Waddill since our last report.

J. S. Hays and Caddie Smith, Tom Bell and Viney King, W. E. Foster and Beulah Stamps.

Persons woh are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by R. E. Bristol.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment Is a certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Granulated Eye Lids, Sore Nipples, Piles, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum and Scald Head, 25 cents per box. For sale by druggists.

TO HORSE OWNERS.

For putting a horse in a fine healthy condition try Dr. Cady's Condition Powders. They tone up the system, aid digestion, cure loss of appetite, relieve constipation, correct kidney disorders and destroy worms, giving new life to an old or over worked horse. 25 cents per package. For sale by druggists.
R. E. Bristol Druggist.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing Kidney and Bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Sold by Irwin and Faut druggist, McKinney, Tex.

W. I. Church, of Staunton Post, G A R, says: "I have tried nearly every cough remedy but have found nothing to compare with Park's Cough Syrup. There is nothing on earth like it for bronchitis, I have suffered ever since my discharge from the army and Park's Cough Syrup is the only remedy that has ever helped me." Sold by Smith Bros.

Farmersville, Tex., Apr. 23, 1894.
Editor Democrat:

Having been appointed by the central club of the peoples party of Collin county assembled in McKinney on Saturday, day, April 21, 1894, as a committee to interview Esq. L. L. Miller of Farmersville in reference to his accepting a nomination at the hands of the peoples party in convention to meet in McKinney on the 5th of May 1894, for the office of county judge. After an investigation we respectfully submit our report: Mr. Miller emphatically declares that he is not an aspirant for any office, but that he is in the hands of his people and will, if imposed on him by the convention accept the nomination for county judge.

Respectfully submitted.

To the Voters of Collin County.

I see my name mentioned in the public press as a probable candidate for state representative. I wish to say to my friends that in case I should be nominated, I fear my health will not admit of my making the race, for this reason I can not accept the nomination if offered to me. But I will say that in case my health improves, as it has in the last three months, I will be in the fight all the same.
Yours,
E. F. England.

Sinkiller On Deck.

Sinkiller Griffin is here. In order that our readers may understand who we have reference to, we will state that he is the pugilistic colored evangelist whom the Dallas News has named Sinkiller. Big, black and bold, five feet and about fifteen inches in height. The devil becomes embarrassed on first meeting him.

Sinkiller came down from Denison on the 5 p. m. train Tuesday and proceeded at once to the public square where he gave a formal challenge to old Nick to meet him in mortal combat. Tuesday night he gave an open air theological performance that made Rome howl—also the "feller" on whose corns were tramped by Sinkiller's number "Lebens."

Wednesday night he occupied the court house, which was filled with whites, negroes, sinners and The Democrat reporter.

Sinkiller marched up and down the legal sanctum roaring like a lion while old Satan and the lawyers present took shelter behind the judge's stand and ye reporter crouched down in the extreme southwest corner of the room. He went down to the bottomless pits where dwelleth the hypocrites, liars, and knocked kneed scoundrels, from there he ascended Jacob's ladder where all good niggers go and implored for a manifestation. He got it. Sinkiller's right hand bower came to the rescue with open mouth, singing a song containing words we know not what, and a tune we failed to "cotch." For thirty minutes this lieutenant conducted a war dance over the prostrate form of his Satanic majesty. In the meantime Sinkiller retained his presence of mind and rustled for bread and meat to sustain the bodies which had become exhausted in the service of the Lord. The nickels and dimes were donated at a very satisfactory rate, which caused Sinkiller to pay a glowing tribute to the white friends and to advise the colored people to behave themselves—become respectable, which would cause the whites to respect them.

During the war dance episode, men, women and children crowded to the front, stood up on benches and the other fellow's toes. Sinkiller explained that it was a very quiet meeting—that the next time he would inject a little excitement into his meeting. This remark caused the devil to wink the other eye.

Sinkiller is a remarkable colored evangelist and the music of his choir is excellent. Sinkiller is a great friend of the newspaper men, because they have advertised him, and aided much in gathering his crowds. He is a welcome visitor to McKinney and we hope he will bring many sinners to repentance.

UNCLE JOSH ON SILVER.

Where's them fellers that's a howlin' that our dollars haint no good?
Pint out one that wouldn't take 'em, wouldn't steal 'em if he could!
If our dollar's made o' silver, if its made of brass or tin,
An' it satisfies the mortgage, haint it what we want to win?

If it bears the Yankee buzzard, and the mighty U. S. A.
It's the coin o' Freedom, an' she'd hev the right o' way.
If our dollars buy us everything the Yankees have to sell,
Let the dudes and cockneys git out, an in furrin countries dwell.

If the English an' the Proosians an' the Rousslans want our corn,
They will sell their gold to buy it just as sure as you are born,
Let us build a wall o' chiney fer our honest home-made cash;
An' we'll bust their game o' freezout and knock ther parties all to smash.

We kin live without a seatrip, there's enough raised on the farm,
An' a little Yankee diet, boys, won't do a mite of harm,
When the other kicking nations see what home-made dollars dew,
Bless your heart they'll come o'runnin an' they'll want ter win 'em too.

All this dratted, pesky panic is a sneak in', hollor sham,
Raised by them who fer ther country never worked or cared a damn.
If Uncle Sam coin money, haint it by our own decree?
S-u-r-e! An' thems the clinkers that I laik—the're good enough for me.

THE COMMONWEALERS.

The Proffered Work to Fry a Hoax.

ANNA, Tex., Apr. 25, '94.
Editor Democrat.

The unrest and discontent throughout the country is so common and of so serious a nature, that every thoughtful citizen should view with alarm and great concern, the danger of a more deadly malady taking hold of the thousands of homeless and unemployed.

A gentleman just from Kentucky, told the writer to day that on his trip through the country, which was made quite leisurly, that he had never witnessed, in all his life such poverty and suffering. Said he: "I stopped at Paducah, Ky., Cairo, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., and several small mining towns, and it was the same at each point; great bodies of unemployed, seeking work, but," said he: "I saw more unemployed men and boys in the city of St. Louis, Mo., than any where else; the streets were completely thronged with ragged, hungry looking children." Said he: "I was so impressed with the sight that I asked a prominent business man what it all meant; he answered that they might be called orphan children as their fathers had been thrown out of employment and was obliged, by hunger to seek work at other places, and the children were just wandering objects of charity. The city is over run with unmarried workmen out of work,"

I want to say right here Mr. Editor that the gentleman's ideas at present are unknown to the writer, except, that he has always, heretofore affiliated with the G. O. P., then how can the people believe the reports sent out by the associate press, of the proffered work to Gen. Frye's company, of the "Coxey" army.

The writer believes with Senator Stewart, that their march should be to the ballot box, but he believes also, that the Rocky Mountain News struck the nail on the head when it said in a recent editorial, that it was "a shameful and unchristian act for the Washington authorities and the Governor of Utah, to treat them as though they were so many dangerous wild animals."

The writer has seen to his own satisfaction the nature of the Pacific coast tramp, or "bum" as they are called out there, to know that there could be no greater contrast than there is between them and the followers of Coxey. The writer has seen these "bums" and the Southern Pacific employes have fierce physical contests for the possession of the trains, and when the "bums" were overcome by superior number or strength, the trainmen would seek safety in hasty retreat behind closed doors, so well aware were they of the shower of stones (and not unfrequently lead) that was sure to follow close in their wake. Such characters should and does receive the positive condemnation of all law abiding citizens. But how is it with the commonweal army? The writer has failed to see a single charge sustained against them in any of the states, notwithstanding all their military display and rigid enforcement of the law.

The people should with one accord refuse to support any paper which is so void of principles and humanity as to try to steal the characters of men who are honest enough to think that there is one spark of humanity, or the semblance of honesty in the present houses of misrepresentatives at Washington, as to march on foot through blinding snows or across barren plains to present a living petition to congress of the distress and suffering in this christian land of plenty, hoping thereby to force the spark into flames and the semblance into reality. Down with anarchy and plutocracy.

ROX.

Populist Meeting.

ILLINOS S. H., April 20, 1894.
Editor Democrat.

After reading of the great enthusiaism in the populist ranks over at our neighbors, Bethany, it was almost a matter of impossibility to keep our pen still; for if there ever was a time in the history of the world that a great common people should arouse from their political slumber and exercise judgemect and great energy for themselves and their future prosperity I think it is now; For it seems that his royal fatness, Grover the First, is determined to forever hang the yoke of enslaved misery upon us and our children Now, I will say to our brethren at Bethany, they have the honor of sounding the first compaign trumpet, but we, as always, are on the line with all four of our feet, just simply sweeping our district for populism. Our boys are not asleep but are going out on the highways and by hedges and bidding all liberty loving people to join in the great work of tearing this yoke of bondage off, and turn the money changers out of the temple and to enjoy with us the great democratic burying, from which there will be wailing and growling of old mossback office seekers, for the populists will say Depart ye workers of oppression, together with your Grover, Gresham, Sherman and great moneyed Carlisle, for I never knew you.

Well, I will not tell you our numerical strength in our club, but we have a whole lot of 'em. We met on last Tuesday night and made our selection for the various offices. Of course we expect to cheerfully endorse the ones the convention puts out. Our selection was as follows:

For representative J. T. Branch and E. F. England; County Judge J. W. Gray of Allen; County court clerk, L. L. Miller of Farmersville; District C. C., E. C. Forbes of Allen; County treasurer, H. H. Caloway of Wylie; Tax assessor, J. Y. Bowen, of Copeville; Sheriff, S. H. Shipman of Farmersville; Tax collector, W. A. Holder, McKinney; Sup't pub. schools, D. D. Kemper of——; County commissioner, com'r. precinct No. 2, C. L Snyder of Farmersville; J. P. precinct No. 2, H. F. Blue, Farmersville.

For fear of the pigeon hole, and hoping to see in the grand, old and much tried DEMOCRAT, articles from all parts of the county telling the good news of reform. Come one, come all. A dyed in the wool reformer.

W. H. SLATER.

President Cleveland has appointed Chas. H. Taylor, of Kansas City, to be recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia. Taylor is a negro, Cleveland appointed him minister to Bolivia, but the president of the Bolivian republic notified Cleveland that Taylor was personna non gratta—personally offensive—because of his being a negro. His name was therefore withdrawn. He is now given a more lucrative place. A negro has been recorder of deeds in the District of Columbia nearly ever since the war. The republicans kept Fred Douglas in the place for years, and Cleveland followed their example and appointed a Massachusetts negro to the place during his first term, and has now given it to another negro.—Vernon Call. (Dem.)

BRIGHTS DISEASE OF KIDNEYS.

One of the Disguised Forms of Chronic Catarrh.

Mr. J. Brake, Petrolea, Ont., writes: Four years ago I had a severe attack of Bright's disease which brought me so low my doctor said nothing more could be done for me. When one of your lectures on the above disease was read to me I took Pe-ru-na and Man-a-lin, and found it worked just as represented. In three months I was a well man, and have continued well ever since.

SYMPTOMS—Dull pain in back; scanty, high colored urine, containing albumen and various sediments; nausea, and sometimes vomiting; puffiness of the face and feet; dropsy of the legs; shortness of breath and general weakness; pallor and dryness of the skin; chilly feelings, alternating with fever and sleeplessness.

TREATMENT—A tablespoon full of Pe-ru-na should be taken before each meal, and enough Man-a-lin at night to produce one natural action of the bowels each day. When the disease is of long standing heated Pe-ru-na should be applied to the back in addition to the above treatment, and the diet consis principally of milk and dry toast. Avoid liquors and tobacco.

Send for free copy of Family Physician No. 2 Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Compay, Columbus, Ohio.

A San Francisco physician makes the following statement: "A man that smokes a hundred cigarettes a day, inhaling them, takes 120 grains of opium; if he smokes 50 cigarettes a day, he takes 60 grains of opium There is no question about it. Analysis has proved it. In addition to the poison of the nicotine, he takes in each cigarette the deadly narcotic, opium. No cigarette that I have ever heard of is free from opium. That is where the soothing effect from the inhalation comes in. Beyond question the boy that smokes cigarettes stunts his growth, wrecks his nerves, weakens his heart and kidneys long before he reaches manhood."

Sixth Precinct Delegates.

UPPER ROWLETT, Apr 20, '94

The populists of the sixth magisterial district met in convention at the above named place. House called to order by R. T. Quisenbery, who explained the object of the meeting; proceeded to elect permanent officers, resulting in the choice of R. T. Quisenbery, chairman and J. G. Ashlock, secretary, and after some appropriate remarks by W. H. Huff, W. T. Hale and the president, proceeded to elect our delegates to the county convention, resulting in the choice of B. B Bryant, Prof. Howard, W. H Huff, R. T. Quisenbery and Bryon Thomas.

A country minister in a certain town took permanent leave of his congregation in the following pathetic manner: "Brothers and sisters, I come to say good-by. I don't think that God loves this church, because none of you ever die. I don't think you love each other, because I never marry any of you. I don't think you love me because you have not paid my salary. Your donations are moldy fruit and wormy apples, 'and by their fruits ye shall know them.' Brothers, I am going away to a better place. I have been called to be chaplain of a penitentiary. Where I go ye cannot come; but I go to prepare a place for you, and may the Lord have mercy on your souls Good by."—Berlin (Md.) Gazette.

Henry Ward Beecher says: "It will scarcely be denied that men are suporior to women as men; and that women are immeasurably superior to men as women; while both of them together are more than a match for either of them separately."

The social question, the labor question and the liquor question are the greatest questions that agitate the minds of the American people. All other questions pale into utter insignificance compared with these awful questions.—Sulphur Springs Gazette.

The higher a man goes the smaller the earth looks.

The earth would have been stolen long ago if man had had anywhere to hide it.

Intolerance has in it the weakness of ignorance and the power of the devil.

When a mortal discovers something that he can do better than anybody else he always runs it into the ground.

The young man who indulges habitually in strong drink indulges in the soup.

From the very first man has lorded it over every thing that would let him.

If one would be just one must not look up to anybody or down upon anybody.

When a troublesome crank decides to crawl off and die he threatens the world with a new departure.

As soon as a small boy joins a base-ball nine he imagines that his arm is the pestle of death and the axletree of the world and no longer looks upon his father as a model giant

The individual who is up to snuff need not be sneezed at.

There are entirely too many people who spend their days in testing the capacity of their stomachs.

The fool considers the tare a smartweed.

One must always wait until a race is finished before he can tell who is in it.

What and What Not to Say.

Don't say a garment sets good, but it fits well.

Don't describe an unusual occurrence as funny.

Don't say not so good as, for not as good as.

Don't say I feel good, for I feel well.

Don't say she looked beautifully, but she looked beautiful.

Don't say these kind, but this kind.

Don't say I have blacked my shoes, but I have blackened my shoes.

Don't say the matter of him, but the matter with him.

Don't say fix my gown, fix this room, but arrange my gown, the room. The best English authorities rarely use fix except to indicate stability or permanence.

Don't speak of articles of diet as healthy, but as healthful or wholesome.

Don't say between three, but among three.

Don't say try an experiment, but make. Experiment means a trial.

Don't say cunning for small, smart for bright, quick-witted, 'cute for acute.

Don't say had rather, had better, for would rather, would better.

Don't say above seven, but more than seven.

Don't say I am so tired, but somewhat; I am not tired any, but at all. Never use some or any adverbially.

Don't say some five days, but about five days.

Don't say ride when you mean drive, nor drive when you mean ride.

Don't say she is stopping in Boston, but staying.

Don't say I'll be ready right off, but immediately.

Don't say I like her first-rate, but very much or very well.

Don't say not as I know, but that I know.

Don't say I am through eating, but that I am done eating.

Don't describe pretty objects as grand, splendid, magnificent, awful.

Don't say try and do, but try to do.

Don't say kind of to indicate a degree, as kind of pretty. Say rather or somewhat.

"You must be a very long-lived family," said a gentleman, talking to a woman of 90 years, in an institution, who said that she had a brother and sister still living, both older than herself.

"Yes, sir," was the reply; "there was eight of us, and my brother Jimmy was the only one who died young."

"And how old was he?"

"Only 70, sir."—Youth's Companion.

Those Fashionable Misfits.

Husband—"Where in thunder did you get that coat! It fits you like a potato sack."

Wife (delighted)—"Does it, really, dear? I was so afraid it wouldn't be quite up to the style."

The papers are criticising the grammar of young ladies just out of college who refer so often to "swell young men." Some contend that "swelled" is the proper grammar, while others prefer "swollen."—Galvention News.

Tommy's Mother—"Did you hear about poor Mrs. Jones? She ran a needle into her hand. The doctors had to open every finger trying to find it."

Tommy—"What made 'em do that, mamma? Why didn't they get the lady another needle?"—Life.

"Grandpa," said Tommy, examining critically the bald head of his ancestor, "may I ask you a question?"

"Certainly, Tommy."

"Do you comb your hair with a razor?"—Texas Siftings.

Complimentary.

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND TEXAS RAILROAD.

"Great Rock Island Route."

Is pleased with Texas and Texas people and hopes the feeling is reciprocal. Business with the new line since its opening has been satisfactory and we will continue to furnish the very best of service to Colorado, Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, and all points east of the Missouri river.

After all, the comfort of a railroad journey is made up of little things.

The track is smooth and the Pullman sleepers and free reclining chair cars are first-class and "up to date." In addition to the above, which are, of course, absolute necessities, the cars are lighted with gas and heated by steam from the engine. There is plenty of ice water in the tanks and a supply of clean towels in the toilet rooms. On top of it all, we have a lot of courteous employes who do not take it as an insult to be asked a civil question. As we say, these are some of the little things sometimes neglected as may have been your experience. We hope not, however, on the great "Rock Island Route."

We are also anxious to please at headquarters. If you are in need of information and cannot procure it readily of your nearest local agent, drop a line to the undersigned and we will do our best to answer it promptly.
